

Interaction Meeting

Two-day interaction meeting with the faculty members of Central Department of Geography and Department of Geography, Prithvi Narayan Campus, Pokhara was organized to discuss on various aspects of teaching Mater Level Courses under Annual System on June 25 and 26, 2017 at Central Department of Geography, Kirtipur, Kathmandu Nepal. All the faculty members of Central Department of Geography and three faculty members from Prithvi Narayan Campus participated in the meeting. During the meeting experiences of all the participants in teaching Geography Course was shared. The discussion was focused on teaching of Geography Courses, availability and use of reference materials and examination system and results. Reference materials used by the faculty members at the Central Department of Geography were shared with the faculty members at Prithvi Narayan Campus and the need to strengthen the relationship among teachers of respective course for mutual understanding of the methods of teaching through email contacts in the future.

